

ARTS ORGANIZATION MEMBERSHIP

NEW MEMBERS: JOIN ARTPRIDE TODAY AND YOUR 2021 MEMBERSHIP DUES ARE ON US!

ArtPride works to ensure that the arts, creativity, and culture play a vital role in New Jersey. When you become a member, you join a network of more than 200 arts organizations, from large performing arts centers to mid-sized theatres, small neighborhood galleries, and performing and visual arts groups from every corner of New Jersey.

ArtPride's work connecting, educating, and advocating for a vulnerable arts community has been critical throughout the COVID-19 pandemic. We continue to synthesize up-to-date information for the industry, advocate for relief and recovery funds, and highlight the creativity and ingenuity of organizations across the state. Member benefits can be categorized in the following areas, but explore artpridenj.org for in-depth information.

ADVOCATE FOR THE ARTS | GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

As the leading voice for New Jersey's arts and cultural industry, ArtPride supports local, state, and federal legislation that bolsters artists, arts organizations, arts education, and art therapies. We've worked hard to build relationships at local, state, and federal levels and can connect your organization to influential decision-makers.

We offer customized advocacy training, but our online resources keep you updated on the issues:

COMMIT TO SOCIAL JUSTICE | EQUITY, DIVERSITY, & INCLUSION

ArtPride is actively working to identify and enact equity, diversity, and inclusion practices that empower the entire New Jersey arts and cultural community. Our Board of Trustees, EDI working group, and staff meet regularly to examine our programs and services through an EDI lens to help us become a truly antiracist organization.

We are proud to support the New Jersey Arts and Culture Administrators of Color \(NJACAC\), a network of professional arts administrators of color dedicated to advancing efforts related to equity, diversity, and inclusion within New Jersey's arts community.
